

TWELFTH YEAR

TWIN FALLS, IDAHO, THURSDAY OCTOBER 5, 1916

NUMBER 44

WOMAN'S PARTY SPEAKERS TO HOLD SPECIAL MEETINGS IN TWIN FALLS

SARA BARD FIELD, ONE OF THE MOST BRILLIANT WOMEN SPEAKERS IN THE COUNTRY, TO SPEAK HERE AT PARISH HALL TUESDAY AFTERNOON...

There came to Twin Falls the last of the week Miss Eleanor P. Barker, one of the interesting and capable leaders in the Woman's Party movement...

At the close of a conference held in Colorado Springs August 10, which was attended by many of the most prominent women in the United States, speakers were sent out to each of the western voting states...

MISS ELEANOR P. BARKER

A Noted Orator

Mrs. Field is known as the silver-tongued orator of the Woman's Party, and her appearance everywhere is greeted by large audiences...

Miss Barker left on the Monday evening train for Boise, but expects to return next week to be in attendance at the meeting of the state federation...

Mrs. Barker is a woman of exceptional ability and personality and a most logical and convincing speaker...

Object of Woman's Party

In the first place, the Woman's Party was not organized to fight any party in particular, but to work with and for that party which will give the most consideration to our great plea...

Why are we working now for the Republican Party? Well, not because all of us are Republicans, for we are not. In fact, Mrs. Field and a number of our most prominent workers are staunch Democrats...

Why do we demand national recognition and refuse to work for state recognition alone? We have worked for state recognition since 1869, and we have been no nearer our goal the last few years than we were in 1879...

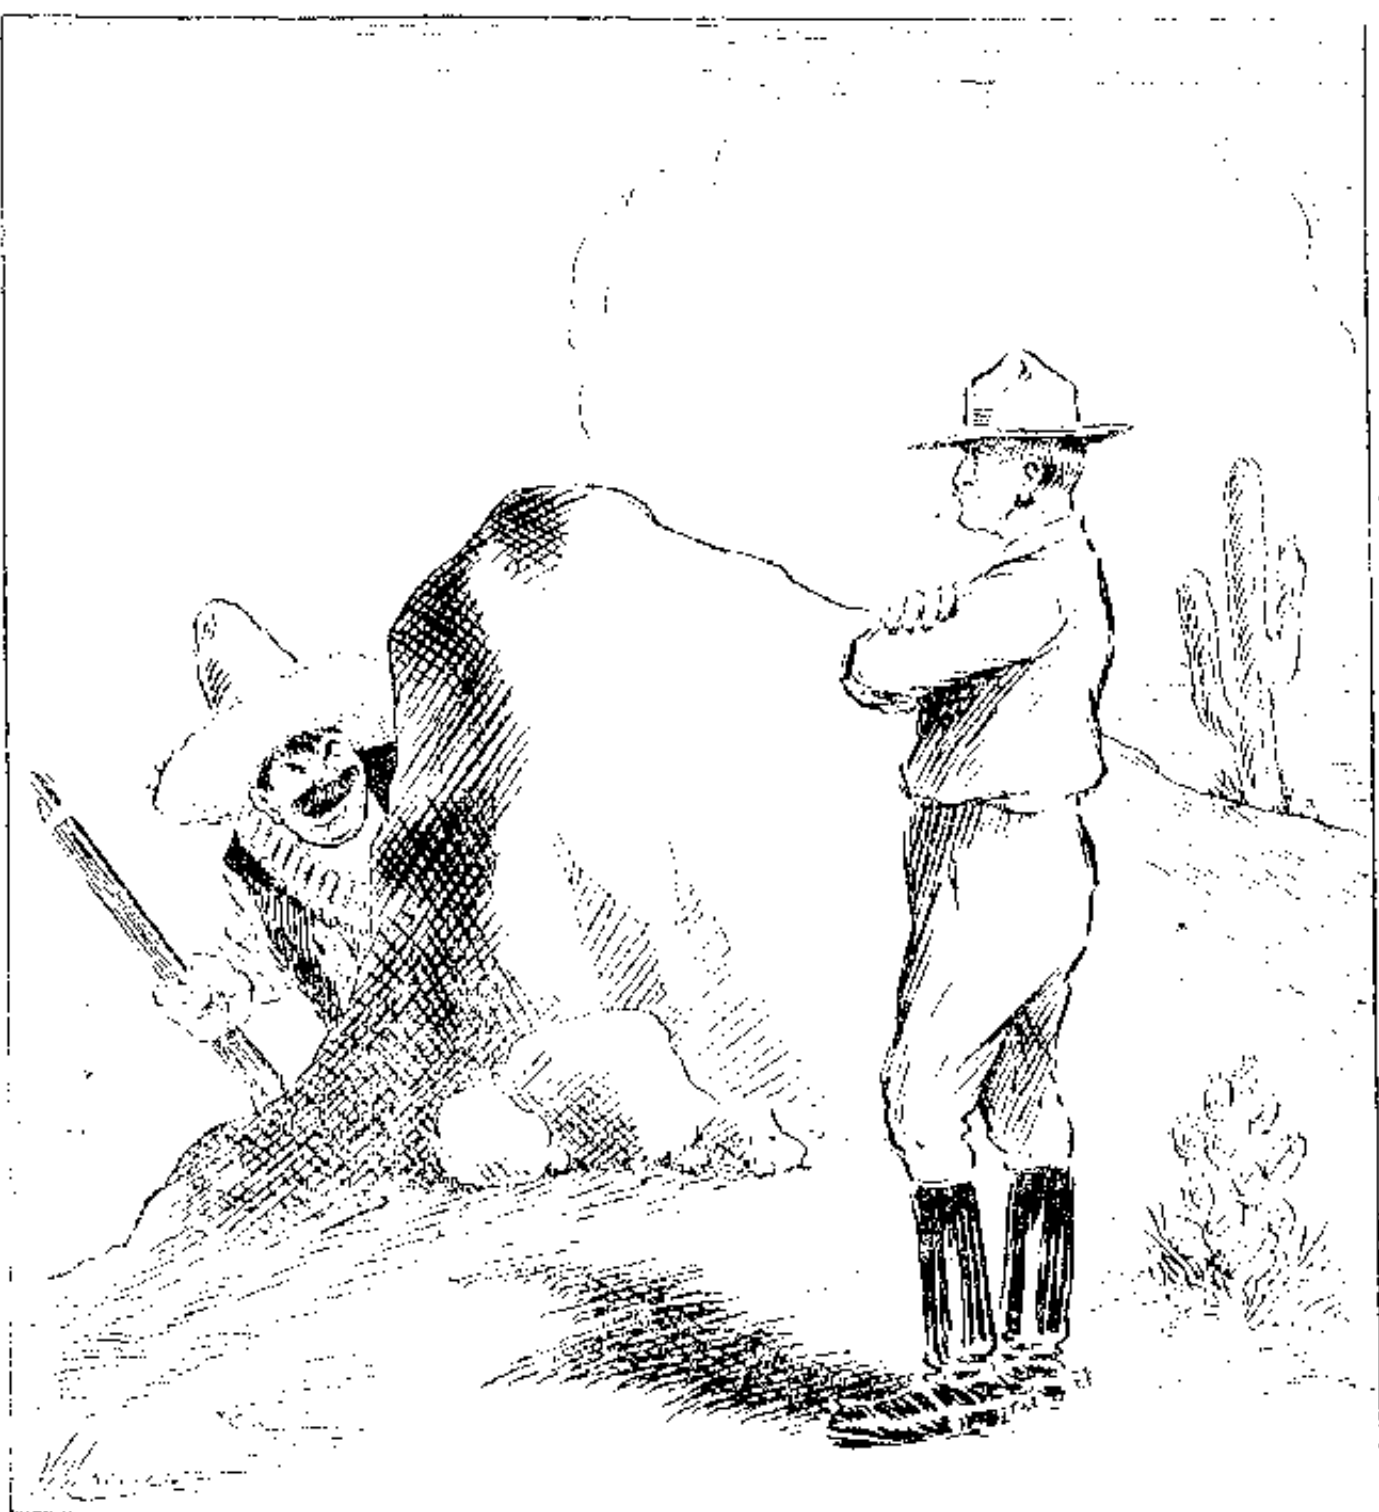

The sixteenth amendment was first presented in Congress in 1878, and for the next 12 years, to 1890 inclusive, Miss Anthony remained in Washington for weeks after the national suffrage convention trying to have some action taken by the committee.

Women Humiliated

In 1901 Miss Anthony made her last appeal for a national amendment, presiding at a hearing before the Senate committee with all her accustomed dignity and force...

EVEN VILLA WOULD LIKE TO KNOW

VILLA: Well, why don't you take me dead or alive? PERSHING: I have no orders to take you. VILLA: Then what is the sonor here for?

FEAR "AFTER-THE-WAR" COMPETITION

NATION'S BUSINESS MEN ARE NOT SATISFIED WITH THE ECONOMIC SITUATION

Believe that the Protective Effect of the War Will Be Broken Down Immediately After Peace is Declared, and the True Weakness of the Recent Tariff Legislation Will Be Revealed

Special Correspondence

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4. From all parts of the country comes increasing evidence that men engaged in production industries are taking deep interest in conditions that will exist after the war...

Instead of being destroyed, Bureau industries have been developed by the war, except in the very limited territory over which the contending armies have battled. Every European factory has been working full time and has increased its capacity in the effort to supply markets...

Undoubtedly, a large portion of the press of the country has felt under the necessity of impressing the facts of the situation as a matter of political expediency. Democratic writers naturally took issue with good reason, that if they acknowledged that the present unparalleled demand for our products is due to the war...

Change Will Be Inevitable

But the careful business men of the country, whose success depends upon their studying fundamental economic conditions, are not overlooking realities. They know that the stream of foreign products flowing into this country was steadily increasing up to the outbreak of the war...

WILL GET DETAILS OF FINAL SERIES

Model Cafe Will Post Telegraphic Account of the Big Games, Play by Play - First Game Saturday

By special leased wire from the Associated Press, the Model cafe expects to get minute reports of the final series. A big display board will be placed above the restaurant building...

This is the first time that detailed accounts of the big games have been received here. The cafe managers assert that instead of giving the play by innings, the service they have secured will report every second of the game, play by play.

Twin Falls time being two hours behind Eastern time, it is expected that the first news will begin coming in at about 12:30 o'clock. The first game will be played Saturday. Anticipating a congestion of traffic in Shoshone street, Mayor Sweeley has arranged to detail a member of the police force for duty there at that time.

INJUSTICE

Colonel South was under the painful necessity of administering a sound thrashing to his son Samuel. After he had completed his labors, he said sternly to his suffering victim: 'Now, tell me why I punished you.' 'That's it,' sobbed Sammy. 'You nearly pounded the life out of me, and now you don't even know why you did it.'
